The Lands advertised to be sold by the Railroad Company has been postponed until November. See Advertisement.

Our Town.

It seems to be a backward subject. The necessities of the poor. Yet it is one deserving the closest attention, if not only our sympathies, but our means.

A few thousand bushels of Corn, wheat, some few hundred sacks of salt will not support the poor of this County, the coming winter. Many thousands of pairs of pants, shoes, socks, shirts, stockings and garments of various kinds for men, women and children — we must endeavor to systematize, some procedure, for the relief of the poor in our midst or we will certainly be responsible for the destruction, that will exhibit itself the coming Season. Committees, should be formed to canvass the County, ascertain the wants of the indigent. And then let a responsible Committee be created, to raise funds to supply the necessities of those who are suffering. Something must be done.

"And it were done, and well done
Twere well twere done quickly."

There is hardly a female in this County—but who has either Father, Brother or Son in our army—battling for our rights. And its right and proper, that we should at once do something to alleviate the suffering—that most assuredly come upon them this winter if the proper subsistence is not meted out to them.—Even in our very Town, with affluence and Elegant ease surrounding them, there are many objects of consideration, whose gallant mate supports are now in the trenches or in line of battle to resist in beating back the yandals, whose polluting presence here would make the property of the sick worthless — give make them feel most acutely, the efforts of their defenders whose families may now be suffering:

"Charity covereth a multitude of Sins"
"He that giveth to the poor
Lendeth to the Lord."

Yet in spite of these Biblical truths staring them in the face. We are afraid there are many of our Brothers, who only passes what he can, and some man—woman or child, without shoes. Now we ask. How in the world—are they going to get them this winter? How are they going to get Jeans, for coats and pants. It has opened at $10 per yard with no selling what it will bring by Christmas. The women can't buy calico at $5 pr yard. And they all can't make, even homespun—some have Cotton Cards and some have none. And not one in ten, have the wool or cotton, allowing that they had the wherewith to card it with. It is a simple presentation, and does not require an astute mind to understand that the wants, of the poor are many—and as the winter season approaches these necessities will be apparent to a heart of flint. Immediate steps should be taken to anticipate these trying necessities. As there is a fearful responsibility hanging over the shoulders of us at home. A responsibility of provision for the families of our brave men in the field. Let us be up and doing, let us feed and clothe the women and children while the men are fighting—and by so doing, we satisfy the one—and serve the other, to decds, of daring that will ultimately drive the vandals from our soil, and repay us for all we have done for the soldier and his suffering family.

BATTLEFIELD, near CHATTANOOGA, } September 21, 1863.

Editor Selma Reporter—After two days hard fighting we yesterday evening completed the rout of the Yankee army under Rosecrans.

Our army is in fine condition and anxious for another encounter.

Please give place to the following list of killed and wounded of my company:

Killed—Sergeant R H Griffin, Private S B Bishop. Wounded—W A McCarty, mortally in hand. P C Stamps, dangerously in hip and hand, Jesse Reeves, dangerously through neck; J C Cruise, severely through thigh; Sergeant Sherril, severely in hip; A Y Houghston, severely in thigh; J W Burdet, slightly in arm; J W Wallis slightly in hand — Henderson slightly in hand; E C Oswalt, slightly in foot; W B Campbell, slightly in leg; J R Roberts, shock-d, E B Smith, slightly in head; Corporal J J Williamson, bearing colors, severely in the thigh.

I was unfortunate enough to be thrown out of the fight myself a few hours by a slight wound on the throat. I am again in command. Yours, &c.

H. C. STONE,
Capt. Co. K., 18th Ala. Regt.

The new projectiles thrown into Charleston are an invention of a son of James G. Birney, the Abolitionist, formerly a citizen of Alabama.

A Good Look.—"Nothing," says Jeremy Taylor, "does so establish the mind amidst the rollings and turbulence of present things, as both a look above them and a look beyond them; above them to live steady and good bond by which they are ruled, and beyond them, to the sweet and beautiful end to which, by that hand, they will be brought."
